Discontinuation of PX-2-B Bulb – Final Purchase Opportunity

Dear Valued Customer,

We are writing to inform you that we will be discontinuing the sale of the PX-2-B bulb, effective April 15, 2026.

This decision has been made because replacing this bulb carries certain risks and must be performed by a qualified technician. For safety reasons, self-replacement is not recommended.

In line with our commitment to customer choice, we will offer a final purchase window for this bulb through April 15, 2027. During this period, you may place last-time orders as needed.

Please be aware that any unauthorized attempt to replace the bulb will void the product's warranty. We strongly recommend having any replacement carried out by the Ocean RMA team.

Should you have any questions or need assistance placing a final order, please do not hesitate to contact OceanOptics.

Sincerely,

Daniel Zeng,

Product Manager
